It's time to : celebrate the extraordinary gift of time. Life is a series of unique moments, moments that deserve a Gran Reserva.

There are few things that encapsulate time like a Gran Reserva. It's difficult to make something that speaks of patience and dedication, the easy part is letting yourself be carried away by its surprising magic that makes the moment special.

Gran Reserva 2018

GRAPE VARIETY

Tempranillo and mazuelo. Yes to excellence, yes to the essence.

VINEYARDS

Selected vines located in the Rioja Alta and Rioja Alavesa, planted more than 40 years ago. The hard thing is to find vines that have survived over decades, the easy part is bringing them to your glass and encapsulating that time and memories in unforgettable moments.

2018 GROWTH CYCLE

The winter was cold, and it rained more than usual. The vineyard grew vigorously in an Atlantic year. The Rioja Regulatory Council called it a "Good vintage". We say: it's the moment to surprise yourself.

WINEMAKING AND AGEING

Fermentation with prolonged maceration, ageing for 26 months in mixed barrels and another 36 months resting in the bottle is complex. The easy thing is recognising that some things improve over time, like this wine and the memories you'll create with it. As will you.

TASTING NOTES

COLOUR: Deep garnet-red in colour with a ruby rim that tells of patience and time.

NOSE: Pronounced aromas of ripe black fruit, fig and resinous notes that intertwine with intense spices and hints of smoke, creating a universe of sensations.

PALATE: As harmonious and balanced as life when everything comes together. With approachable tannins that embrace the palate and a long finish that reassures you that you made the right choice.

PAIRING

You know all about special moments and accompanying them with barbecued meat and fish, traditional stews, game and cheeses... to celebrate life. You know all about celebrating.
